All events are at 12:30 p.m. unless noted otherwise.

*These events are co-sponsored by Student Activities and PALS

April 19: 60s Rock - When the Music Mattered (Science 100)

This is an exciting "Behind The Music" look at the 1960s by Barry Drake, one of rock music's foremost historians. 60s Rock will feature hundreds of photos and video clips from one of music's most turbulent decades. Included in this presentation will be Ohio State Lima memories shared from that same era.

April 26: Mark Holbrook (as Matthew Brady) presents Mr. Lincoln's Camera Man: An Evening with Matthew Brady (Reed Hall 160)

His photographs of Abraham Lincoln and the Civil War have become icons of the early days of photography. Come hear the story from Matthew Brady himself as the world-renowned photographer and chronicler of the American Civil War and the presidency of Abraham Lincoln. (OhioHumanities.org website)

May 3: Juggernaut Jug Band (On the Quad for May Week) Beginning at 11:30 am

The Juggernaut Jug Band has been performing since the mid 1960s. Each performance is a challenge to the audience to have as much fun as the band. Don't let their antics fool you though. Their exuberant music is the result of skillfully conceived arrangements and unique vocal harmonies.

May 9: Gulimina Mahamuti, Pianist (Reed Hall 160)

A native of Karamay City in western China and a faculty member of Capital University Conservatory of Music in Columbus, Ohio, Dr. Gulimina Mahamuti enjoys an active career as a soloist, collaborative pianist, piano teacher, and lecturer in both China and the United States. She is the first Chinese Uighur to receive a Doctorate of Musical Arts in Piano Performance from the United States. Her performances have taken her to Canada, major cities throughout China, and the Midwest and East Coast of the United States.

May 23: Jamie Kennedy, photographer and Kelly Urquhart, painter (Reed Hall 174)

Husband and wife team, Jaime Kennedy and Kelly Urquhart will present works on paper that have elements of sculpture, photography, drawing, and digital media. Jaime Kennedy is an Assistant Professor in the School of Visual Communication Design at Kent State and Kelly Urquhart received her M.F.A. from Miami University-Ohio. Both maintain an active schedule of art exhibitions.
